

CONNECT WITH OLYMPIA

Dear Michael,

Harvard Business Publishing, located in Watertown, MA, first hired Olympia Moving & Storage about a year ago for a small internal move. Since then, HBP has used our services numerous times including some large and unique projects.

Perhaps the most unique was when HBP asked us to clean and organize their "very full" 20,000 sq. ft. warehouse. Having completed similar projects for other large companies, our crew was ready with a plan. Over the course of three days we inventoried, organized, and stocked all the materials in the warehouse. In addition, we removed 7,000 lbs. of unwanted items to a recycling center.

The crew even got creative. Surplus cubicle panels were used to create more useful areas within the warehouse, including a bike corral for employees. It was a challenging task, but Olympia met it on time and on budget.

More recently, Harvard Business Publishing hired us to help with an internal "re-stack" of over 300 employees. They moved all the employees' belongings to their new location and disconnected, moved, and reconnected each employee's computer. We also broke down, moved, and re-built a large number of cubicles within the office. All these services were performed simultaneously over two weeks and were once again finished on time and under budget.

Do you need our help with an unique move? Olympia Moving & Storage has been in business since 1993, and maintains offices in Boston, Massachusetts and Washington, D.C. We have a great team of dedicated professionals, and will do everything within our power to exceed your expectations.

If you're thinking about a move, please give me a call or drop me an e-mail. I'd welcome the opportunity to discuss our services with you.
